A Dime's Worth For a Nickel.

That's what every Evermore cigar you buy at Eckler and company's two Main street stores is. It's built of quality for the quality, as one trial will convince the hard to please smokers. Clean in every particular, well built and always uniform, are some of the many merits of the Evermore.

Leather Goods.
In purchasing goods made of leather you must depend very much upon the firm from whom you buy for good goods. Leather has many imitations and will mislead the average buyer. 25 years of buying will assist you in getting a card case at Jackson's bookshop, 988-988 Main st.

Nothnagle's Summer Sale.
Do you know that Nothnagle's great summer sale is now in full swing, bigger and better than ever before? Do you know that hundreds of the best people in town are taking advantage of it, and they are tickled to death at the remarkable bargains they are getting. Why ain't you with the rest? Read full particulars in the new Nothnagle advertisement on last page and you'll get some idea of the saving that can be made while this great sale lasts. Remember every article in the store is offered at a very substantial reduction for cash, and many articles in every department go at a double reduction, which brings them down to about half their actual value when you consider that the regular Nothnagle prices are much lower than other stores for the best quality goods. Among the articles that go at a double reduction are a lot of fine and medium priced dressers, chiffoniers, iron beds, wood beds, brass beds, sideboards, buffets, dining tables, rockers, pictures, lace curtains, portieres, cedar chests, utility boxes, etc. It won't do you any harm to look and may do you a heap of good. Elevator to all departments. 1069 Main street and 135 Fairfield avenue.

TAKE NOTICE.
All persons are recommended to take Nothnagle's Kidney Remedy for backache, rheumatism and kidney and bladder trouble. It will quickly correct urinary irregularities, which, if neglected, may develop into a serious illness. It will restore health and strength. Do not neglect signs of kidney or bladder trouble and risk Bright's disease or diabetes. F. B. Brill, local agent.

WESTPORT

The Streets—Sunday Closing—Water for the Schools—New Sidewalks—The Recent Fair—At Compo Beach—Interesting Personals.

It is a real delight to visit a village where all the business streets are paved, and there is no dust. This is the case in this village and the people are rejoicing that they have gotten rid of the spattering and mud producing water cart. Besides the cost is much less. The road from this town to the Fairfield line is now in an excellent condition and has a thick coat of oil which should last until the snows come.

The closing of stores on Sunday is being agitated. The merchants were fat to obey the law, and object to closing up, are two Italian fruit dealers, one of whom has an establishment close by the library and the other keeps a place at the western end of the bridge. There is a state law against keeping open shops on Sunday and a board of one member of the town stable with the requisite amount of backbone can easily enforce the law. Parents throughout the town will be glad to know that the School board has decided to have bubbling fountains of water in every school house. This is city water, of course, and as it will be constantly running it will always be fresh. At present but three of the schools have such fountains.

The large tent for the out door gospel meetings has arrived from New York and has been pitched on the lot opposite Mr. Fred Kemper's house. The clergy of the town are active in promoting the meetings and a large attendance is hoped for. All who can sing are requested to volunteer for the choir.

A man named Charles R. Palmer, chauffeur for a summer resident, wears a cork leg and recently fell in swimming with it. Becoming detached from Mr. Palmer, that gentleman came near sinking. A heroic rescue brought him to the shore and the floating leg was subsequently recovered.

Charles H. Taylor, of this town, aged 46, years, died at the Albany hospital in Norway. He leaves a son and a daughter.

A long bit of concrete sidewalk is being put down from Compo street on State street, out past the residence of Mr. Hurlbutt. It is being done by the Women's Town Improvement Association. Now if the garbage receptacles and the ice cream tubs can be taken from the curb stone in front of the fruit store on Main street, corner of State street, the sidewalk will be much improved in looks and smell.

The Sausgutuck Cash Grocery has decided to go out in business. At a recent town meeting, rather thinly attended, the proposition to provide a system of sewers for the central part of the town was discussed. Mr. Paul Nash, of Stamford, a civil engineer, estimated that the cost would be about $14,000. Nothing definite was decided.

It cost the boys who robbed the Greens Farms depot of a slot machine the sum of $38.25.

Those who helped to make the fair held on the lawn of the Congregational parsonage last Wednesday a success the names of Miss Wilcox, Mr. Harwood, Mr. Saxon, Mr. Osborne, and Mr. Fred Hubbell should be mentioned. Over $100 was received for the carpet fund. New floors are being put in the new school building and the outside of the West and East Sausgutuck schools are to be painted.

The ladies of the Village Improvement Society held a meeting this afternoon at the library, to decide what to do with the money raised in extending the school building.

Gerald Coffin has found employment in a Bridgeport garage.

Mr. George H. Boyden, principal of the Staples High school, is at the Harvard summer school taking a course in chemistry.

Mr. John F. Goddard now has one of the best automobiles in town, a big six Stevens.

Mr. Albert Linxweiler is taking his vacation.

Tomorrow the Sunday school of the Methodist church will go to Roton Point for its annual picnic. On Wednesday the town school of the Episcopal Sunday school will go to the same place.

Rev. and Mrs. Mackenzie are reported to be in New York state for a couple of weeks.

The Men's Civic club proposes to issue a souvenir pamphlet of the town. Mrs. Neil Mitchell and daughter have been visiting in West Haven.

Earl Barlow of Port Chester is visiting in town.

There was a large crowd at Compo beach yesterday, and the Sunday before it is stated that 2,000 people visited the beach. The old boat house is still in evidence. The much talked of "Minute Man" crouching behind a stone wall, has not yet been made, but he cannot be "unveiled" this season. It is quite a job to make a full grown man in bronze worth $2,000.

Charles Hall, after visiting here has returned to New Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Filley of Albany are visiting at Compo Beach.

Mr. James A. Smith was recently bitten by a carriage while driving. The horse became frightened and bolted. Mr. Smith is able to be out again.

Walter is having an addition built to his house on Chestnut hill.

If you are all run down Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. It strengthens the kidneys so they will eliminate the impurities from the blood that depress the nerves, and cause "exhaustion," backache, rheumatism, urinary irregularities, which sap the vitality. Do not delay. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy at once. F. B. Brill, local agent.

FAIRFIELD

Too Much Electricity—A Little Surprise Party—More Oil for the Streets—Items of a Personal Nature.

People in town are still talking about the "downpour" of Friday afternoon, flooded the streets, made ponds in the meadows, and did the crops a world of good. An incident of the shower was the narrow escape of the house of a colored man named Miller, who lives near the residence of Mr. H. B. Evers, with whose family he has been connected nearly all his life. The electricity knocked a hole in the roof of the house, and the rain came in. Mr. Miller's mother was sitting in a chair on the front porch was rudely thrown to the floor. The storm extended no further west than Southport.

The Watson family arrived on Saturday at the Ocean Waverly cottage at the beach.

There was quite a little gathering on Friday night at the house of Attorney Citrus Kinz, in honor of the 13th birthday of his boy, Marshall Kinz. The compliment took the form of a surprise. Miss Rachel Kinz, Miss Ira King presided at the tea tables and cut the cake, dished the cream and poured the lemonade. Fortunes were told, the love lines on the boy's hands being designated as good.

A few of the guests were Lowell Jacoby, Howard, Henry, Theodore, William and Sherwood Burr, Chris and Ben Wyrzlen, Freddie and William West and other boys of the neighborhood.

It is stated that residents along the railroad have been for sometime in a state of terror, fearing that sparks from passing locomotives would set their grain and grass fields on fire. Now they feel reassured and can rest at night, since in a year or two the use of coal burning locomotives will be abandoned, and the deadly live wire will hang over head.

The oiling of the Main street of the town began on Saturday from Ash Creek bridge westward. A good heavy coat is being put on and it will have to last next summer. Of course, Seletman Fox is one of the moving spirits in this good work, and riding out in his handsome automobile he will see to it that the work is well done.

Miss Dorothy Killian is visiting in Bridgeport.

Miss L. Mason has returned to her home in Plainfield, N. J.

Mrs. William Cole has gone back to New York.

It is published that there is a great demand at the library for Mrs. Wright's new novel.

A large party of friends has recently been entertained at the beach cottage of Mr. C. O. Jeliff of Southport.
